

Includes Language Access Publications; External Research and Studies; Federal Administrative Activities; Federal and State Legislation; and more.

Language Access in Health Care Statement of Principles

Language Access in Health Care Statement of Principles Explanatory Guide (updated 2010)

This Statement of Principles springs from the work of numerous national organizations to develop an agenda to improve policies and funding for access to health care for individuals with limited English proficiency (LEP). Participants in this effort included health care provider organizations, advocates, language companies, interpreters and interpreter organizations, and accrediting organizations.

- Language Access Publications
- External Research and Studies
- Federal Administrative Activities
- Federal and State Legislation
- Disparities in Care
- External Links
- Archives