

Includes Health Care as a Human Right; Collection of Race, Ethnicity, and Language Data; Working Group on Health Disparities and Health Reform; and more.

- What Advocates Should Know About Health Information Technology and Electronic Health Records (Jun. '13)
- Health Care as a Human Right
- Collection of Race, Ethnicity, and Language Data
- Working Group on Health Disparities and Health Reform
- Creating More Equity in Health: A Comprehensive Approach to Health Reform (Jul. '08)
- Race, Ethnicity, and Health Care: KFF Health Status publications

After almost 10 years of serving as the Managing Attorney of the Washington, DC office of NHeLP, Steve Hitov has recently moved on to other career opportunities. While we will miss his expertise and his commitment to securing health rights of low-income communities, we certainly wish him well.