

The Kentucky Medicaid Reimbursement Act, Ky. Rev. Stat. § 199.010, requires that Medicaid recipients receive necessary medical services. Feb. 11, 2019.

The court finds that the following Medical Assistance is not a reasonable accommodation for the plaintiff's disability.

The Court found that the defendant's failure to provide the plaintiff with the necessary medical services is a violation of the ADA.