

On August 12th, Judge Carroll Bridges issued a verdict in favor of the Plaintiffs in Navajo Health Care (D. Ariz. Aug. 12, 2004). The

The Court ordered the following remedies. The state Medicaid director must:

- 1) develop adequate or alternative contingency plans when the agency cannot provide necessary home
- 2) ensure a rate of pay to home care workers so as to deliver adequate services to qualified individuals; just a rate of pay which guarantees that each individual will receive the services for which he or she qua
- 3) monitor the program so that gaps in services are detected "in enough time to implement the alternativ
- 4) implement a grievance process which an individual to: (a) call and speak to a live person to report a g
- 5) ensure that the program "inform each of its members as to his or her rights pursuant to this order.

Counsel in the case are the Arizona Center for Disability Law, the Native American Protection and Advo